2.2 Conditional capital

The share capital may be increased in an amount not to exceed CHF 10 000 000 by issuing up to 100 000 000 registered shares with a nominal value of CHF 0.10 each through the exercise of conversion rights and/or option rights granted in connection with the issuance by Nestlé or one of its subsidiaries of newly or already issued convertible debentures, debentures with option rights or other financial market instruments. Thus the Board of Directors has at its disposal a flexible instrument enabling it, if necessary, to finance the activities of the Company through convertible debentures.

For a description of the group of beneficiaries and of the terms and conditions of the issue of conditional capital, refer to art. 3^{bis} of the Articles of Association of Nestlé S.A.

2.3 Changes in capital

2.6 Limitations on transferability and nominee registrations

According to art. 5 par. 5 of the Articles of Association, no person or entity shall be registered with voting rights for more than 5% of the share capital as recorded in the commercial register. The limitation on registration also applies to persons who hold some or all their shares through nominees pursuant to that article. Legal entities that are linked to one another, through capital, voting rights, management or in any other manner, as well as all natural persons or legal entities achieving an understanding or forming a syndicate or otherwise acting in concert to circumvent the regulations concerning the limitation on registration or the nominees, shall be counted as one person or nominee (art. 5 par. 7 of the Articles of Association). The limitation on registration also applies to shares acquired or subscribed by the exercise of subscription, option or conversion rights (art. 5 par. 10 of the Articles of Association). See also art. 5 par. 6 and 9 of the Articles of Association and point 2.6.3 below.

Please refer to points 2.6.3 and 6.1.2 below.

2.6.3 Admissibility of nominee registrations, along with an indication of percent clauses, if any, and registration conditions

Pursuant to art. 5 par. 6 and 9 of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors has issued regulations concerning nominees, setting forth rules for their entry as shareholders in the share register.

These regulations allow the registration of:

- Nominees N (“N” as Name of beneficial owner disclosed): where trading and safekeeping practices make individual registration of beneficial owners difficult or impractical, shareholders may register their holdings through a Nominee N with voting rights, subject to the specific understanding that the identity and holdings of beneficial owners are to be disclosed to the Company, periodically or upon request. Voting rights of Nominees are to be exercised on the basis of voting instructions received from the beneficial owners. Holdings of a Nominee N, or Nominees N acting as an organised group or pursuant to a common agreement, may not exceed 5% of the share capital of the Company. Holdings exceeding the 5% limit (respectively the limit fixed by the Board of Directors, see point 6.1.2 below) are registered without voting rights. The responsibility for disclosure of beneficial owners and their holdings resides with the nominees registered in the share register.

The objective is to ensure that the perception of those parties about the historical record, current performance and future prospects of Nestlé is in line with management's understanding of the actual situation at Nestlé. The guiding principles of this policy are that Nestlé gives equal treatment to shareholders in equal situations, that any price-sensitive information is published in a timely fashion and that the information is provided in a format that is as full, simple, transparent and consistent as possible.

Methodology

Nestlé produces each year a detailed Annual Report, which reviews the business. It also provides detailed audited Financial Statements for the year under review, prepared according to the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). These are complemented by the Half-Yearly Report.

Nestlé publishes its full-year and half-year results, and its first-quarter and nine-months' sales figures; it also publishes press releases at the time of any potentially price-sensitive event, such as significant acquisitions and divestments, joint venture agreements and alliances. Major announcements, such as results of corporate activity, are accompanied by a presentation which is broadcast "live" on the Internet and which anyone can choose to access, whether or not that person is a shareholder.

Furthermore, Nestlé has an active investor relations programme, including both group meetings and one-to-one meetings. This includes the Annual General Meeting, as well as presentations at the time of its full-year and half-year results. The Group also has a programme of roadshows, which take place in most financial centres around the world, and hosts themed events for institutional investors and investment analysts at which members of line management give an overview of their particular areas of responsibility. These meetings focus either on recently announced financial results, recent corporate activity or the longer-term strategy of the Group; they are not an occasion for the disclosure of new information which might encourage an investment decision.

Specifically on governance topics, the Company engages into an active dialogue with investors through regular Chairman's roundtables, surveys and bilateral exchanges which are reported to the Chairman's and Corporate Governance Committee or the Board.

The Company utilises the World Wide Web (www.nestle.com) to ensure a rapid and equitable distribution of information. Nestlé does not just rely on people visiting the site to be updated on the latest developments within the Group: anyone can sign up on the site to be alerted automatically by Nestlé whenever there is a change to the Investor Relations Web site; also press releases are distributed to major wire and news services. There are links to non-financial information that may be of interest to investors, including areas such as the environment, sustainability, the Nestlé Corporate Business Principles and the Nestlé Human Resources Policy. A Corporate calendar of relevant dates is available on the Corporate Web site (www.nestle.com).

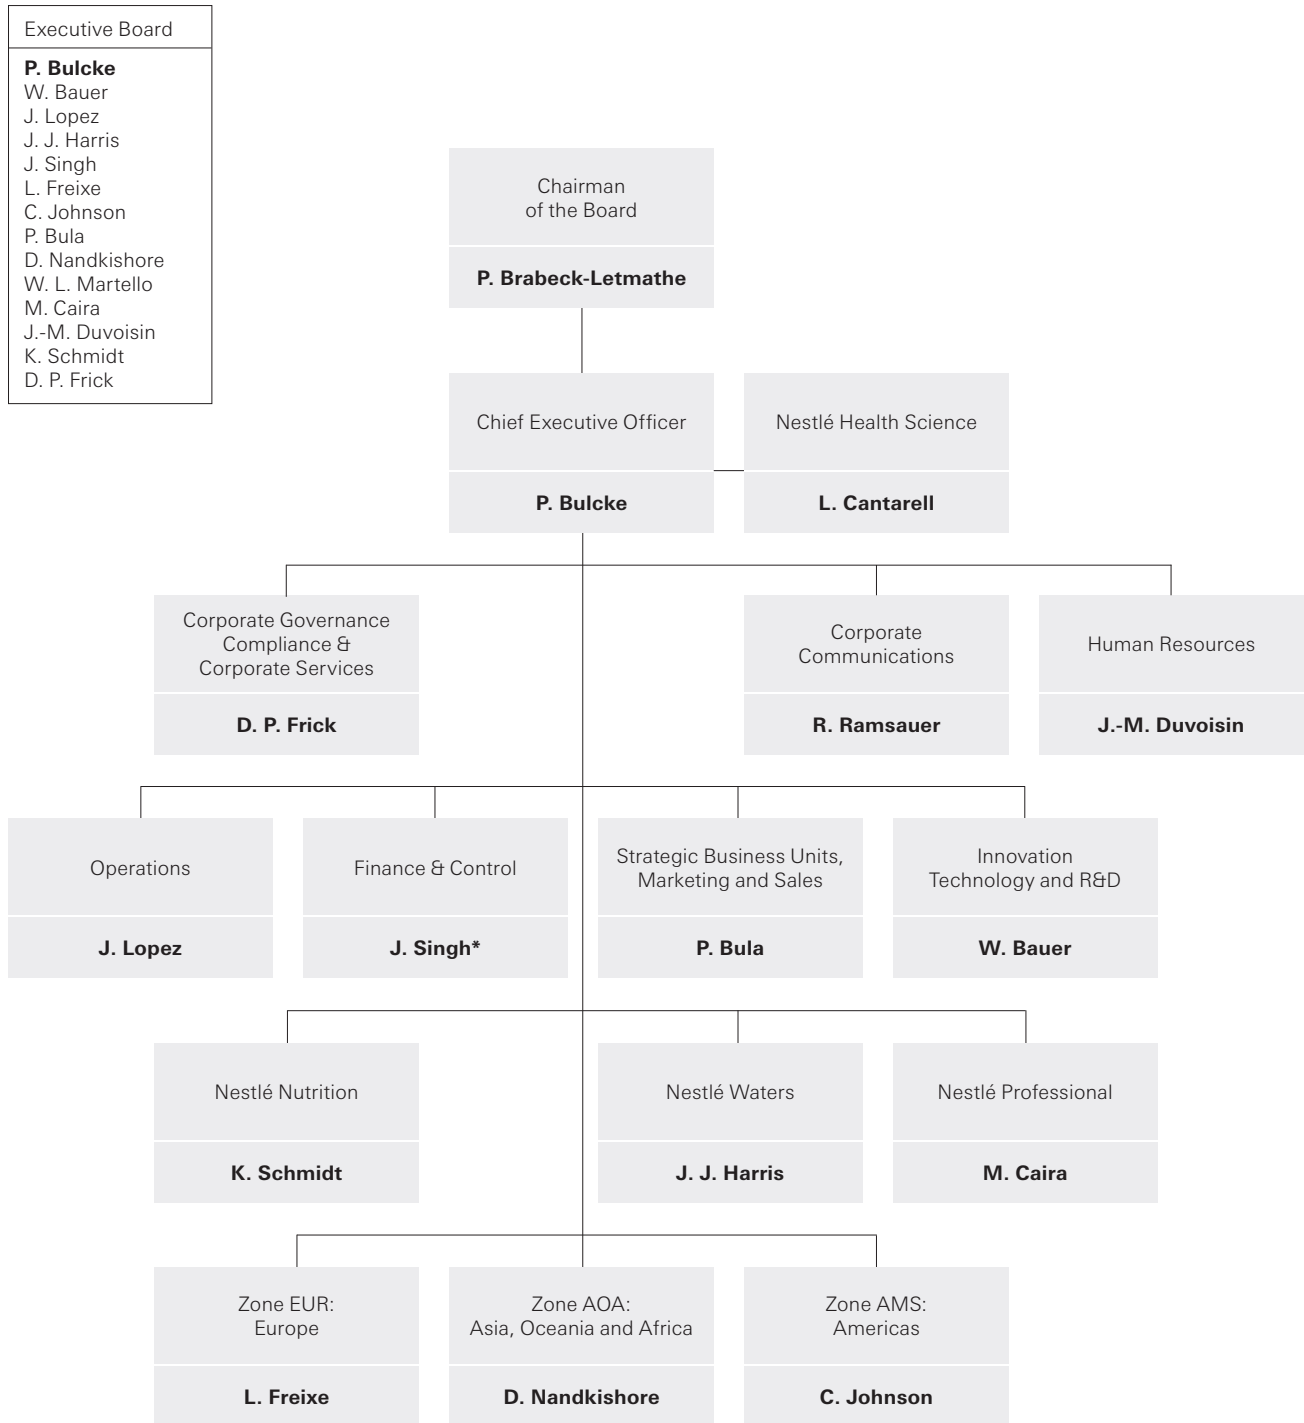

The Nestlé Investor Relations Department can be contacted, either through the Web site, or by telephone, fax, e-mail or letter.

Appendix 1: Compensation Report 2011

Compensation Report 2011

Introduction

The future success of Nestlé is dependent on its ability to attract, motivate and retain good people. Among the various programmes to support this ambition is a competitive remuneration policy. Nestlé believes in a performance culture as well as good corporate governance and corporate social responsibility.

Therefore, remuneration at Nestlé is based on the following principles:

- pay for performance to support the short-term and long-term objectives;
- compensation aligned with long-term Group strategy and shareholders' interests;
- coherence in our remuneration plans and levels throughout the Company;
- appropriate balance of fixed and variable remuneration depending on hierarchical level to ensure a direct participation in results achieved.

As last year, the Compensation Report shall be submitted to the advisory vote of the shareholders at the next Annual General Meeting.

Changes to the compensation system

The Compensation Committee has decided on the following material changes to our compensation system for 2012:

- as anticipated in last year's report, the Compensation Committee has decided to introduce a second performance measure to our Performance Share Unit Plan (PSUP). The currently used relative performance measure of Total Shareholder Return versus peers, which is an external one, will be supplemented by an absolute, internal performance measure in the form of Earnings per Share. The vesting level of the PSUP will be determined with equal weight by each of these two measures;
- the Board has decided to change the compensation structure of the CEO as from 2012. The target Short Term Bonus as well as the Long Term Incentives will be reduced from 200% to 150% of the Annual Base Salary, which will be increased proportionally. This change will result in a lower ratio between fixed and variable remuneration.

Governance

The Board of Directors has the overall responsibility for defining the compensation principles used in the Group. It approves the compensation of the members of the Board, its Chairman, the CEO and the Executive Board as a whole.

The governance for setting the compensation of the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board is defined as follows:

Compensation of	Recommended by	Approved by
Chairman of the Board, CEO and Executive Board as a whole	Compensation Committee	Board of Directors ^(a)
Non-executive members of the Board of Directors	Compensation Committee	Board of Directors ^(b)
Members of the Executive Board	CEO together with Chairman	Compensation Committee

(a) Chairman as well as CEO not voting on own compensation.

(b) Members not voting on own compensation to the extent that Committee fees are concerned.

Compensation Committee (CC)

The CC is governed by the Compensation Committee Charter. The Committee consists of the Chairperson who is an independent and non-executive member of the Board, one of the Vice Chairmen of the Board and two other non-executive members of the Board.

The members of the CC and its Chairperson are appointed by the Board of Directors for a period of one year. On 31 December 2011, the composition of the CC was as follows:

Chairman	Members
Mr Daniel Borel	Mr Andreas Koopmann
	Mr Jean-René Fourtou
	Mr Jean-Pierre Meyers

Compensation 2011 for the members of the Board of Directors

Board membership fees and allowances

With the exception of the Chairman and the CEO, each member of the Board of Directors receives a Board membership fee of CHF 280 000 and an Expense Allowance of CHF 15 000. These figures have remained unchanged since 2006.

Members of a Board Committee receive the following additional fees:

Board membership and the Committee fees are paid 50% in cash and 50% in Nestlé S.A. shares, which are subject to a three-year blocking period. As anticipated in last year's report, the blocking period was extended from two years to three years.

The number of Nestlé S.A. shares is determined by taking the closing price of the share on the SIX Swiss Exchange on the ex-dividend date of the respective financial year, discounted by 16.038% to account for the blocking period of three years. In 2011 the value was CHF 43.83.

Loans

Principles of compensation for members of the Executive Board

Principles

The compensation programmes for members of the Executive Board are based on three major objectives:

Pay for performance

As a direct reflection of this objective, the Total Direct Compensation package for the members of the Executive Board includes a fixed Annual Base Salary and a variable part, which is a combination of a Short-Term (Annual) Bonus and Long-Term Incentives. For the members of the Executive Board, the variable and performance-related part was between 50% and 75% of the Total Direct Compensation. The criteria and objectives which are used are reflecting performance as well as the quality and sustainability of such performance and risk considerations. All variable compensation includes maximum award limits.

Alignment with long-term company strategy and shareholders' interests

Executive compensation is aligned with company strategy and shareholders' interests. Part or all of any Short-Term Bonus is paid in the form of Nestlé S.A. shares instead of cash. Long-Term Incentives are provided in the form of Performance Share Units (PSUs), Stock Options on Nestlé S.A. shares or Restricted Stock Units (RSUs). All share-based elements have restriction periods of three years. This way of compensating presents a balance between annual and Long-Term Incentives and underlines the close connection and alignment between the interests of the members of the Executive Board and the shareholders.

Compensation to be internationally competitive

To ensure that the remuneration of the members of the Executive Board is internationally competitive, the Compensation Committee is using the following benchmarks:

- STOXX Europe 50 companies (without financial industry companies): this is our primary benchmark and includes the largest European companies which are of a size comparable to Nestlé;
- European Fast Moving Consumer Goods companies: this is a secondary benchmark and includes large and medium sized European companies which are operating in the same industry sector as Nestlé;
- Swiss Market Index (SMI) companies: as another secondary benchmark this index includes industrial companies which are headquartered in Switzerland and reflects Swiss remuneration practices.

Nestlé targets its remuneration to be between the median and the 75th percentile of the benchmark. Whenever appropriate, the benchmark values are adjusted for the size of Nestlé.

Periodically, the Compensation Committee uses the services of Towers Watson, a reputed international compensation consultancy, to provide a detailed market comparison. The results of the study confirmed that Total Direct Compensation is broadly in line with the market median, adjusted for the size of Nestlé.

Elements of Executive Board compensation

The total compensation package consists of the following elements:

1. Annual Base Salary

The Annual Base Salary is the foundation of the total compensation. It also serves as the basis for determining the second element, the Short-Term Bonus, and the third element, the Long-Term Incentives. It is reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee based upon the individual contribution and with the objective to keep it competitive against our chosen peer groups.

2. Short-Term Bonus

The Short-Term Bonus or annual bonus is expressed as a bonus target, which is a percentage of the Annual Base Salary. The objectives to be reached are set at the beginning of each year; they include collective as well as individual objectives and reflect the Company's strategy. Collective objectives are Nestlé Group measurable operational objectives including most importantly organic growth, real internal growth (RIG), operating profit performance, market shares, capital expenditure and additional specific objectives used by the Board to evaluate performance. They also include certain non-financial targets related to elements of our strategic roadmap. Individual objectives are determined by the CEO for each member of the Executive Board related to that individual area of responsibility and again include financial and non-financial targets. In case an executive reaches all objectives in full, the bonus payout will correspond to the targeted level. If one or more objectives are not reached, the bonus is reduced. Accordingly, payment reflects the achievement of targets.

For the CEO, 100% of the target is made up by Nestlé Group objectives as described above. For the other members of the Executive Board, 30% of the target is allocated to Nestlé Group objectives and 70% is determined on the basis of individual (quantitative and qualitative) as well as other collective objectives (e.g. objectives of the Zone, Globally Managed Business or Function). For competitive reasons Nestlé does not further specify the details of its objectives.

In 2011, the following target levels were applicable (expressed in % of Annual Base Salary):

- CEO: 200%
- Executive Vice President: 100%
- Deputy Executive Vice President: 80%.

The bonus payout can reach a maximum of 130% of the target. There is no guarantee for the payout of a minimum bonus.

A minimum of half of the CEO's bonus is payable in the form of Nestlé S.A. shares. Other members of the Executive Board can elect to receive part or all of their bonus in the form of Nestlé S.A. shares instead of cash. Nestlé S.A. shares taken instead of cash are subject to a three-year blocking period. For purposes of the conversion of cash into shares, the conversion value of a Nestlé S.A. share is determined as the average closing price of the last ten trading days of January of the year of the payment of the bonus. The value of these shares is determined by taking the conversion value discounted by 16.038% to account for the three-year blocking period.

3. Long-Term Incentives

Members of the Executive Board are eligible to receive Long-Term Incentives in the form of Stock Options under the Management Stock Option Plan (MSOP) and Performance Share Units under the Performance Share Unit Plan (PSUP). The target grant value for Long-Term Incentives in 2011 was 200% of the Annual Base Salary for the CEO and 100% of the Annual Base Salary for the other members of the Executive Board. One half of the Long-Term Incentives grant was provided in the form of Stock Options and the other half in the form of Performance Share Units. The fair value of Long-Term Incentives at grant is determined by using generally accepted pricing models.

The Management Stock Option Plan (MSOP) provides non-tradable options on Nestlé S.A. shares. Each option gives the right to purchase at the exercise price one Nestlé S.A. share. The exercise price for the Stock Options corresponds to the average Nestlé S.A. share price of the last ten trading days preceding the grant date. The Stock Options vest three years after the grant. Upon vesting, the options have an exercise period of four years before they expire.

The Performance Share Unit Plan (PSUP) was introduced at the beginning of 2009 and provides units which entitle participants to receive freely disposable Nestlé S.A. shares at the end of the three-year restriction period.

The level at which PSUs vest is determined by the degree by which the performance measure of the PSUP has been met. For 2011, the performance measure was the relative Total Shareholder Return of the Nestlé S.A. share compared to the STOXX Europe 600 Food & Beverage Index. In 2011 the range at which PSUs shall vest was between 0% to 200% of the initial grant, thus providing alignment with strategy and shareholders' interests.

The Restricted Stock Unit Plan (RSUP) provides units which entitle participants to receive freely disposable Nestlé S.A. shares at the end of the three-year restriction period on a one for one ratio.

4. Other benefits

The Company limits other benefits to a minimum. Typical elements are a car allowance (there are no Company cars provided to the members of the Executive Board), a contribution towards health insurance premiums as well as long-service awards in line with Company policy, as offered to other employees. Those Executive Board members who have been transferred to Switzerland from other Nestlé locations can receive benefits in line with the Nestlé Corporate Expatriation Policy.

5. Pension benefits

Executive Board members domiciled in Switzerland are affiliated to the Nestlé Pension Plan in Switzerland like all other employees. The Plan is designed as a defined contribution plan with a retirement pension objective, expressed as a percentage of the Annual Base Salary.

This means that the pensionable earnings include the Annual Base Salary, but not the variable compensation (Short-Term Bonus or Long-Term Incentives). Any part of the Annual Base Salary which exceeds the ceiling prescribed by the Swiss Pension Law is covered directly by the Company.

Share ownership policy

The Company does not have a share ownership policy requiring members of the Executive Board to own and hold Nestlé S.A. shares.

Loans

The Company does not, as a rule, grant loans, except that it may provide advances free of interest and generally repayable over a three-year period to members of the Executive Board who have been transferred to Switzerland from other Nestlé locations in line with the Nestlé Corporate Expatriation Policy.

Contracts of employment and severance payments

Members of the Executive Board are normally subject to a generally applicable notice period of six months. During this time, unless there was termination for cause, entitlement to Annual Base Salary and pro-rated Short-Term Bonus continue. There are no severance or change of control provisions (“golden parachutes”).

Benchmarks

See above principles of compensation for members of the Executive Board.

8 After hearing the registered shareholder or nominee, the Board of Directors may cancel, with retroactive effect as of the date of registration, the registration of such shareholder or nominee if the registration was effected based on false information. The respective shareholder or nominee shall be informed immediately of the cancellation of the registration.

9 The Board of Directors shall specify the details and promulgate the necessary regulations concerning the application of this art. 5.
